

Network Traffic Capture and Analyze Report

The network traffic analysis revealed a mostly healthy and well-functioning network environment. Common protocols such as TCP, HTTP, DNS, and TLS dominated traffic. Some minor performance issues (retransmissions) were observed but posed no significant impact. No serious security threats were identified during the capture window.